The garrison finish came with the crowd on its feet, ready to make a break for the cars, and turned joy into sadness. It was a pretty game, both teams fielding brillantly, and Sexton and Walsh working in the box in great form. With third place as the goal, the men on both sides were working for all they were work, to annex the victory. Although behind until the last inning, and seemingly unable to do anything with Walsh's curves, the Shoemakers never lost heart, played hard, and it was this spirit of "Sticktoit" that finally gave them the victory.

The only run of the Tars came in the fourth, when Murdock opened with a clean double to left, and scored when Jackson singled over first. Munson died on a high one to Levy, and while Johnson fanned, Jackson was thrown out in his effort to steal. Walsh pitched great ball, pulling himself out of several close holes, and it was not altogether his fault that the team lost in the fateful minth. This was the last car to lose its perfect score in the 1910 Glidden Tour. For five terrific days the $1500 Chalmers had no penalty, while $2500 to $3500 cars suffered. And in the final examination in Chicago, after a grind of 2851 miles, the Chalers "30" was not found at fault in any of its vital parts.

The Chalmers "30" came through the severest test to which stock cars were ever submitted with an unequaled record.

Larned's superiority at every department of the game was well shown in the opening set, but Bundy's work was of the first class. In the second set, the challenger steadled down somewhat, and by tak-ing long chances on drives at the side and base lines, just out of Larned's reach, won a hard fought twelve-game set.

Splondia generalship at critical times, aided by lobbing of a brilliant order, gave Bundy the fourth set, 8-6, but the exertions had weakened him, and he was so exhausted when the fifth set was begun that Larned won both set and match 6asily.
